

The sites which make up the territory of the Alpes de Haute-Provence offer an original approach to the history of the Universe, Earth and Man, from prehistoric times to nowadays.

The department offers the public the chance of discovering this exceptional built and natural heritage, livened up all year round by a multitude of forms of artistic expression : festivals, lively shows, music, contemporary art, religious art, temporary exhibitions, activities related to books and literature, cinema and scientific culture. Heritage places and quality events enhance a remarkable cultural between France and Italy.
